LIFE SAFETY DISCLAIMER NOTICE

Dear Customer:

A Johnson Controls technician performed an inspection of your life safety system on 6/18/2019, and deficiencies were identified on Service Request # 44386996. Correcting these items is essential to the proper operation of your life safety system. Your system may not operate under the current conditions and may not assist in keeping life and property from harm.

These deficiencies/impairments can result in unintended operation or failure of the system to operate. We strongly recommend immediate correction.

You were sent a quote for these repairs on 7/8/2019 by KIRKLAND, SCOTT A.

We understand that you have decided not to authorize Johnson Controls to repair these deficiencies at this time.

Please note that Johnson Controls disclaims all responsibility and liability for any claims for damages, costs or injuries arising out of your use of this system.

If you are not retaining another authorized service provider to perform the corrections, please immediately notify your local authority having jurisdiction and your insurance carrier.

If you do reconsider and decide to get the identified items repaired by Johnson Controls, please contact the district and reference SR# 44386996, Quote # 1434159.

Respectfully,
